'DUNGERELLA'

1ST to 4TH DECEMBER 2011

"I thought Dungerella was probably your best performance yet. It was a high quality production in every respect and an excellent watch. Massive compliments to Alan Robinson on his writing skills because you need good material to start with and he provided it. The thing that struck me most was how well paced it was. The pantomime kept moving on at a really good pace, and of course in comedy, timing is everything. It was a really good piece of work on all fronts."
